

Resources—to keep you up-to-date

At IPIC, our job is to help you obtain information, to stay current and make judicious legal and business decisions. That's why membership comes with the following publications:

Bulletin

- A newsletter filled with case summaries, member profiles, informational articles, job offers and upcoming events
- Published bi-monthly
- Available in print and in the members-only section of ipic.ca

Canadian Intellectual Property Review (CIPR)

- A professional journal featuring articles on the latest IP issues and research
- Published twice a year
- Available in print and in the members-only section of ipic.ca

Website

- A members-only section offering member-specific news, a directory of members, all IPIC publications and information on lobbying efforts
- Available by entering your member number and the first 4 digits of your last name

Practice Update

- Short updates on changes in legislation, regulation or government policy, or changes in law following a court decision
- Available in print, by email and in the members-only section of ipic.ca

E-Newsletter ...COMING SOON!

- A summary highlighting recent IP events and decisions and reminding you of the ones to come
- Available by email

Books

- History of the Patent and Trade-mark Profession in Canada by Robert E. Mitchell and Gareth E. Maybee, Q.C. and Anton Piller Orders and the Federal Court of Canada by Daniel S. Drapeau and Jonathan J. Cullen
- Available for purchase at the on-line IPIC shop at ipic.ca at a reduced price for members.
