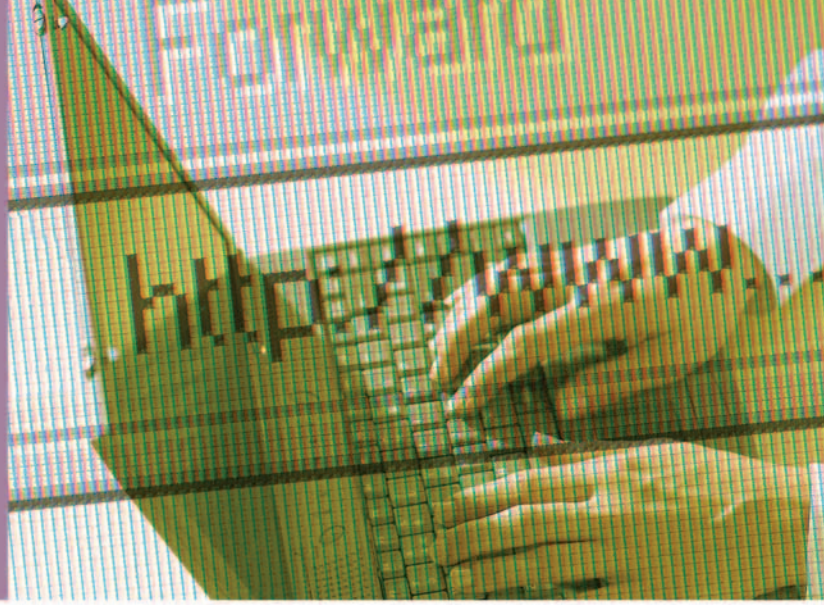
INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY INSTITUTE OF CANADA

Trade-mark Agent On-line Training Course

MODULE 2: SECTION 45

march 26 – june 26, 2007



This Section 45 Module will provide you with an overview of the legal principles surrounding Section 45 proceedings, as well as the practical skills required to successfully defeat or defend a Canadian trade-mark registration in summary cancellation proceedings.

learning objectives—learn how to:

- Advise your client on why and when to consider Section 45 proceedings and when to consider settlement
- Apply the Trade-marks Office Practice Rules and the relevant sections of the Trade-marks Act and Trade-marks Regulations, with particular focus on statutory use requirements
- Understand the various stages of a Section 45 proceeding
- Prepare documents relevant to a Section 45 proceeding including registrant's evidence, a requesting party's and registrant's written submissions, and oral arguments
- Determine the threshold that must be met to excuse non-use for reasons of special circumstances
- Apply relevant case law

who should participate

- Trade-mark agent trainees (1 year minimum experience)
- Trade-mark agents, in house counsel and lawyers looking to update their skills
- Trade-mark portfolio managers who wish to increase their knowledge

on-line training

This on-line course consists of a series of exercises undertaken individually over a period of 12 weeks. Assignments are reviewed by an instructor. Students participate in a web-based discussion forum.
